Report Released Today

Today, Special Commissioner of Investigation Richard J. Condon released a report relating to an investigation which found that Thomas Everett, a teacher at Sheepshead Bay High School in Brooklyn, attempted to take a leave of absence without pay to cover the period of time that he would be incarcerated in New Jersey. Everett, a disbarred attorney, had been convicted in Essex County of Theft by Deception and Misappropriation of Entrusted Funds and sentenced to prison. As the executor of separate estates of elderly women, Everett stole over $1 million, none of which was recovered.

Copies of the report will be available after 11:00 a.m. at 80 Maiden Lane, 20th Floor. Questions should be referred to Aquila Haynes at (212) 510-1479.

The Office of the Special Commissioner of Investigation is part of the New York City Department of Investigation and Special Commissioner Condon reports to Commissioner Rose Gill Hearn.
