Report Released Today

Today, Special Commissioner of Investigation Richard J. Condon released a report detailing the findings of an investigation into the circumstances of a tragic and fatal choking incident, on October 21, 2015, at PS 250 in Brooklyn. The cause of death for seven-year-old 1st Grade student Noelia-Lisa Echavarria was “Anoxic Ischemic Encephalopathy Complicating Obstruction Of Airway With Food Bolus.”

Special Commissioner Condon has referred his findings to Chancellor Fariña. The investigation did not find any misconduct.

The Office of the Special Commissioner of Investigation is part of the New York City Department of Investigation and Special Commissioner Condon reports to Commissioner Mark G. Peters.
