Job Description

The Office of the Special Commissioner of Investigation for the New York City School District (“SCI”) has broad authority to investigate wrongdoing by employees, contractors, and vendors doing business with the New York City Department of Education (“DOE”) - the nation’s largest school district. SCI performs highly confidential and sensitive investigations and studies concerning corruption, misconduct, or other illegal, unethical or improper activities both, within and outside of the DOE, and seeks to develop and implement plans and programs to control and prevent such illegal or improper practices. The office also serves as the Inspector General for the Teachers' Retirement System of the City of New York and the New York City Board of Education Retirement System.

SCI is seeking a self-motivated candidate to serve as an Investigative Support Analyst. The successful applicant will provide overall support, as needed, to investigators, auditors/accountants, attorneys, and administrators to assist with completion of investigations into fraud, corruption, misconduct, and sexual misconduct. The successful candidate should have strong analytic skills and the ability to compose comprehensive memorandum of analysis. The successful candidate may act as a legal assistant to support attorneys when needed by providing legal research, document and contract reviews, drafting notations and other documents.

THOSE HIRED BY SCI ARE DOE SALARIED EMPLOYEES AND NYC RESIDENCY IS NOT REQUIRED.

As of August 2, 2021, all new hires must be vaccinated against the COVID-19 virus, unless they have been granted a reasonable accommodation for religion or disability. If you are offered city employment, this requirement must be met by your date of hire, unless a reasonable accommodation for exemption is received and approved by the hiring agency.
