Report Released Today

Today, Special Commissioner of Investigation Richard J. Condon released a report detailing an investigation into misconduct at the New York City Department of Education (“DOE”) Scan Center. The DOE hires consultants and temporary workers through a division of Goodwill Industries of Greater New York and Northern New Jersey, Inc. known as GoodTemps. It was discovered that a DOE employee and others, including a former DOE employee who became a GoodTemps temporary employee assigned to the DOE, entered into a scheme through which individuals paid $25 to obtain fraudulent medical forms. Numerous individuals submitted the false documents to GoodTemps to secure temporary employment intended for disabled workers.

Copies of the report are available at 80 Maiden Lane, 20th Floor. Questions should be referred to Laurel Wright-Hinckson at (212) 510-1479.

The Office of the Special Commissioner of Investigation is part of the New York City Department of Investigation and Special Commissioner Condon reports to Commissioner Rose Gill Hearn.
