REPORT RELEASED TODAY

Today, Special Commissioner of Investigation Richard J. Condon released a report detailing the findings of an investigation which substantiated that 36-year-old Absent Teacher Reserve (known as ATR) Teacher Daniel Meagher committed misconduct at several schools and at an office in Brooklyn.

At one school, teen-aged students observed Meagher searching for and viewing websites containing inappropriate content. At another assignment, young female students encountered Meagher in the girls bathroom. At a third school, more young female students observed Meagher in the girls bathroom.

When Meagher was reassigned to a Children First Network (CFN) office, female employees found him in the ladies room. Other CFN employees saw Meagher with his zipper open and his penis exposed.

Commissioner Condon asks anyone with additional allegations of misconduct committed by Meagher, who changed assignments on a weekly basis, to contact his office at 212-510-1500.

Special Commissioner Condon recommended to Chancellor Walcott that Meagher's employment be terminated and that he be made ineligible for future work with the DOE. He also referred the findings to Kings County District Attorney Charles J. Hynes for whatever action he deems appropriate.

The office of the Special Commissioner of Investigation is part of the New York City Department of Investigation and Special Commissioner Condon reports to DOI Commissioner Rose Gill Hearn.
