Job Description

The Office of the Special Commissioner of Investigation for the New York City School District (“SCI”) has broad authority to investigate wrongdoing by employees, contractors, and vendors doing business with the New York City Department of Education (“DOE”) - the nation’s largest school district. SCI performs highly confidential and sensitive investigations and studies concerning corruption, misconduct, or other illegal, unethical or improper activities both, within and outside of the DOE, and seeks to develop and implement plans and programs to control and prevent such illegal or improper practices. The office also serves as the Inspector General for the Teachers' Retirement System of the City of New York and the New York City Board of Education Retirement System.

SCI is seeking a self-motivated candidate to serve as a Legal Investigative Support Analyst who will handle case sensitive data in a confidential manner. The successful applicant will provide overall support, as needed, to SCI attorneys, administrators and investigators to assist with completion of investigations of fraud, corruption, misconduct, and sexual misconduct. The successful candidate will have strong analytic and written skills to act as a legal assistant to support attorneys which includes legal research, administrative support, contract reviews, assist with compliance matters, drafting agency documentation, and administratively prepare, finalize and disseminate SCI letters and reports to appropriate City agencies. The successful candidate will also maintain extensive files and records, and assist with case updates and case management. The successful candidate will use internal database systems to update records, and handle other projects as assigned to assist with office efficiency.

THOSE HIRED BY SCI ARE DOE SALARIED EMPLOYEES AND NYC RESIDENCY IS NOT REQUIRED.

HYBRID OFFICE / REMOTE WORK SCHEDULE AVAILABLE AFTER INITIAL TRAINING PERIOD.

APPROVED CANDIDATE MAY BE ELIGIBLE FOR PUBLIC SERVICE TUITION FORGIVENESS.
