Job Description

The Office of the Special Commissioner of Investigation for the New York City School District (“SCI”) has broad authority to investigate wrongdoing by employees, contractors, and vendors doing business with the New York City Department of Education (“DOE”) - the nation’s largest school district. SCI performs highly confidential and sensitive investigations concerning corruption, misconduct, or other illegal, unethical or improper activities, both within and outside of the DOE, and seeks to develop and implement plans and programs to prevent such illegal, unethical or improper practices. The office also serves as the Inspector General for the Teachers' Retirement System of the City of New York and the New York City Board of Education Retirement System.

Under the direct supervision of the Special Commissioner and the First Deputy Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioner will have great latitude for independent decision-making, and will provide head-of-office duties and responsibilities in the absence of the Commissioner and First Deputy. The Deputy Commissioner will supervise and perform complex legal and investigative activity, and will develop, promote, and supervise multifaceted criminal and administrative investigations. Other responsibilities include, but are not limited to: litigation research, briefing, and practice on behalf of the agency, representing the office in inter-agency conferences, legal proceedings, and administrative hearings. The Deputy Commissioner will review DOE programs, review investigative memoranda to determine completeness and accuracy; draft complex SCI investigative reports, draft and review subpoenas and other legal documents; research and analyzing documents related to investigations to determine governing rules and applicable laws; conduct witness interviews; make policy and procedure recommendations to the DOE; and work jointly with various prosecutors’ offices and other investigative and administrative agencies. The successful candidate may also be assigned additional administrative responsibilities as needed by the office.

THOSE HIRED BY SCI ARE DOE SALARIED EMPLOYEES AND NYC RESIDENCY IS NOT REQUIRED.
HYBRID OFFICE / REMOTE WORK SCHEDULE AVAILABLE AFTER INITIAL TRAINING PERIOD.
APPROVED CANDIDATE MAY BE ELIGIBLE FOR PUBLIC SERVICE TUITION FORGIVENESS.

Qualification Requirements

1. Graduate from an accredited law school.
2. Admission to the New York State Bar and minimum of fifteen years of full-time legal/investigative experience including the supervision of investigations or reviews and the preparation of reports relating thereto.
3. Significant trial or other litigation experience, preferably in the courts of New York State.
4. Highest professional and ethical standards.
5. Incumbents must remain members of the New York State Bar in good standing for the duration of their employment at SCI.

Preferred Skills

1. Substantial legal experience (fifteen or more years of experience preferred), to include: litigation, investigative, advisory, or law enforcement experience, preferably with a prosecutor’s office, law enforcement agency, or comparable legal experience.
2. A broad range of criminal investigative experience including, but not limited to, public corruption, fraud, or financial crimes; experience in a Rackets or Appeals units, and familiarity with the recent criminal justice reforms a plus.
3. Outstanding writing skills with prior investigative report writing, appeals brief writing, and prior proofreading experience.
4. Experience with NYC government and agency operations, and policies and procedures of the City of New York; familiarity with New York State and Federal regulations related to investigative processes and legal requirements.
5. Knowledge of regulatory compliance a plus.
6. Strong legal research and analytical skills with prior public policy experience.
7. Proficiency with MS Office Suite and experience with multiple databases and software products.
8. Ability to work both independently and collaboratively with various outside agencies and offices.
